TRAVON CLIFTON

Travon Clifton was pro-choice—based on her perspective of what would happen if she ever became pregnant through rape. Following her 18th birthday she learned from her mother that she was conceived in rape. This turned Travon’s beliefs about abortion upside down. Today, she is dedicated to sharing her personal journey and the good that has come from the precious gift of life.

Travon has worked in both television and radio for more than 15 years. She currently produces “Equipped For Life with Pastor Christopher Brooks,” a radio outreach of Evangel Ministries in Detroit, heard on WLQV 1500. Previously she worked with Dr. Glenn R. Plummer, president and owner of the Christian Television Network, for more than ten years. Travon resides in Michigan with her husband Jonathan and their two beautiful children.
